- For educators in juvenile justice settings
- For professionals working with youth who are pregnant or parenting, who are in foster care, who are homeless, have runaway, or in alternative school settings

Application Process and Registration Fee

_____ Please initial here to indicate that you understand:

- Applications are accepted on a first-come, first-serve basis within each training track.
- After your application is received and once we have received a minimum number of registrations required for each track, Youth for Justice will contact you to inform you if you have been accepted into the training.
- When you have been accepted, Youth for Justice will send you a registration form and your non-refundable registration fee of $198 will be due within ten business days. If your application was received after February 1, 2006, your registration fee will be $220.
- Youth for Justice reserves the right to cancel tracks that are undersubscribed. We will make this decision no later than February 15, 2006.
- Youth for Justice will provide you with: curriculum and training materials, continental breakfasts, lunches, and coffee breaks on March 13, 14, and 15, 2006. Additional expenses are your responsibility.
- You should not make hotel or travel reservations until you have received confirmation that you are accepted into the training.
